

Hazmat 2014 Programme

Eastwood Hall, Nottingham

Day 1, 30th April 2014 (am Chair – Jon Gibbard, NCEC)

Keynote 09:30	Dave Walton, CFOA Hazmat Lead, Assistant Chief Fire Officer West Yorkshire Fire & Rescue Service
AM presentation 2 09:45	Chemsafe Simon Jones NCEC
30 min break
AM presentation 3 10:55	Joint Emergency Services Interoperability Programme (JESIP) David Levesley, WMAS – Working together, saving lives Paul Curran and Steve Lamb, Tyne & Wear Fire & Rescue Service – ‘Inter-Operability’ – What’s it all about?
AM presentation 4 11:35	It didn’t start out as a disaster Mike Callan, USA
Lunch break 1 hour
	1	2	3	4
1 st Workshop/ Scenario 13:30	‘Flash Cordon’ – a system to help first responders estimate safe, appropriate and proportional initial cordons at emergency hazmat incidents Bob Hark, Tactical Hazmat Max per session: 36	Practical substance identification Rob Mitchell, Tactical Hazmat Max per session: 18	Hands on IDL (Illicit Drugs Laboratories) Kevin Miller, Tactical Hazmat Max per session: 24	Scenario based on deliberate incidence of chemical exposure Beth Davies, NCEC and Graham Turner and Paul Molloy, Oxfordshire Fire & Rescue Service Max per session: 30
2 nd Workshop/ Scenario 15:45	As above	As above	As above	As above

Hazmat 2014 Programme

Eastwood Hall, Nottingham

Day 2, 1 st May 2014
	Parallel 1 (Chair – Rob Mitchell)	Parallel 2 (Chair – Dan Haggarty)	Parallel 3 (Chair – Kevin Miller)
AM presentation 1 09:00	Detection identification & monitoring - National Resilience Mike Dale, National Resilience	Dangerous goods transport incidents Ali Fawcett, Cleveland Police	Charge of the 'Li'ght Brigade Dave Reynolds, BatteryBack plc
AM presentation 2 09:40	Scale up, scale down Rob Mitchell and Bob Hark, Tactical Hazmat	Met Office services and plume meteorology Mark Rogers, MET Office	Chemdata Maria Stearn, NCEC
30 min break
AM presentation 3 10:50	Logistics safety management Leo Rupert, Shell Chemicals Europe B.V.	Securing the carriage of dangerous goods Leon Brain, Department for Transport	Protective actions in chemical incidences and fires: evacuate or shelter in place? Jim Stewart-Evans, Public Health England
AM presentation 4 11:30	Scale up, scale down Rob Mitchell and Bob Hark, Tactical Hazmat (repeated session)	Case study demonstrating how multi-agency working has ensured that public exposure to chemicals is minimised Allister Gittins, Public Health England	Toxic Twins, it's more than just smoke Kevin Miller, Tactical Hazmat
Lunch break 1 hour (pm Chair – Jon Gibbard, NCEC)
13:10	Outside Demonstrations including viewing of Braemar Howells vehicle - Please follow directions given on the day
PM presentation 1 13:30	Incidents involving biological agents Matt Scullion, Biofire Diagnostics
PM presentation 2 14:10	Safe, unsafe, and dangerous – A practical approach to handling hazardous materials Mike Callan, USA
15:00	Close of conference		