PM presentation 1 90 min 13:30	Guilty or Not Guilty? – Courtroom scenario where you decide Phil David, South Wales Police and Bethan Davies, NCEC Adapted from a real incident, this scenario will present a summary of an incident involving a hazardous material, along with the case for the prosecution against an individual, a company and Emergency Service personnel. This will include questioning of defendants and audience participation through all stages, including what would delegates do in a similar scenario and how this could change the potential outcome. The scenario will be followed by a genuine post-verdict review, analysis and discussion, which will highlight how things are not always simple and that decisions made by those responding may come back to haunt you at a later date.
15:00	Summing up and close of conference Jon Gibbard, NCEC
